O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand hath made, I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed;

*Whakaaria mai tōu rīpeka ki au tiaho mai ra roto I te pō hei kona au titiro atu ai.
Ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander, and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur, and hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze;

When Christ shall come with shouts of acclamation and take me home – what joy shall fill my heart!
Then shall I bow in humble adoration, and there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!

These hills where the hawk flies lonely, beaches where the long surf rolls, mountains where the snows meet heaven, these are our care.

Pastures where the sheep graze calmly, orchards where the apples grow, gardens where the roses cluster, these are our prayer.

Forests where the tree ferns tower, rivers running strong and clear, oceans where the great whales wander, these are our care.
Race meeting race as equals, justice for age-old wrong, worth for every man and woman, these are our prayer.

Cities where the young roam restless, lives brought to deep despair, homeless and powerless people, these are our care.
Places where the Word is spoken, hands held in serving love, faiths of our many cultures, these are our prayer.

All that the old world gave us, all that the new world brings,
language, ideas and customs, these are our care.
Life finding joy and value,
faith seeking truth and light,
God heard and seen in all things, this be our prayer.
