Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love, show us how to serve the neighbours we have from you.

Kneels at the feet of his friends,
silently washes their feet,
master who acts as a slave to them.

Neighbours are rich and poor, varied in colour and race,
neighbours are near and far away.

These are the ones we should serve,
these are the ones we should love;
all these are neighbours to us and you.

Loving puts us on our knees,
serving as though we are slaves;
this is the way we should live with you.

Kneel at the feet of our friends, silently washing their feet;
this is the way we should live with you.

Tom Colvin

These hills where the hawk flies lonely, beaches where the long surf rolls, mountains where the snows meet heaven, these are our care.

Pastures where the sheep graze calmly, orchards where the apples grow, gardens where the roses cluster, these are our prayer.

Forests where the tree ferns tower, rivers running strong and clear, oceans where the great whales wander, these are our care.

Race meeting race as equals,
justice for age-old wrong,
worth for every man and woman, these are our prayer.

Cities where the young roam restless, lives brought to deep despair,
homeless and powerless people, these are our care.

Places where the Word is spoken, hands held in serving love, faiths of our many cultures, these are our prayer.

All that the old world gave us, all that the new world brings,
language, ideas and customs, these are our care.

Life finding joy and value,
faith seeking truth and light,
God heard and seen in all things, this be our prayer.
