Synod, 23 September

Nothing is lost on the breath of God,

nothing is lost for ever;

God's breath is love, and that love will remain, holding the world for ever.

No feather too light, no hair too fine,
no flower too brief in its glory;
no drop in the ocean, no dust in the air,
but is counted and told in God's story.

Nothing is lost to the eyes of God,
nothing is lost for ever;

God sees with love and that love will remain, holding the world for ever.

No journey too far, no distance too great,
no valley of darkness too blinding;
no creature too humble, no child too small for God to be seeking, and finding.

Nothing is lost to the heart of God,
nothing is lost for ever;

God's heart is love, and that love will remain, holding the world for ever.

No impulse of love, no office of care,
no moment of life in its fulness;
no beginning too late, no ending too soon,
but is gathered and known in God's goodness
