

Next Sunday's Propers

Sunday May 27th

Trinity Sunday

Celebrant and Preacher - Rev. Damon Plimmer

Sentence: Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. Isaiah 6: 3

Collect: Blessed Trinity, in the relationship of the Godhead you show us how to love, how to give unconditionally, and reveal your truth: call us to that model of self-giving which is transforming love. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Redeemer. AMEN.

Readings: Isaiah 6: 1-8; Psalm 29;
Romans 8: 12-17; John 3:1-17

- Bishop Steve and The Anglican Diocese of Dunedin;
- The upcoming meeting in Singapore on June 12 of President Trump and North Korean leader, Kim Jong Un.

Welcome to St Columba's. We are glad you are here. We hope you enjoy worshipping with us this morning.

Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey,
and companions on the road;
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh I'll laugh with you;
I will share your joy and sorrow
till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven
we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together
of Christ's love and agony.

Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

Richard A. M. Gillard, 1977

"Kindness is not just an act, but a blessing. When someone treats you with kindness the impact of that blessing stays with you. It seeps into your spirit. It changes your self-perception and alters your outlook toward the world around you. This blessing is so enduring we can remember a single act of kindness for a lifetime. We can look back and count the people whose kindness shaped our lives. Kindness is one of the most powerful spiritual tools we possess. We should use it with intention and we should use it often. How do we change the world? One kindness at a time."

Steven Charleston

What kindness can you do for someone today?

*After the service please join us for light refreshments.
Activities for small children are available at the rear of the church.*
