

Next Sunday's Propers

Sunday June 3rd

Ordinary Sunday 9/Te Pouhere Sunday

Celebrant - Rev. Ken Light

Leith Brew will be talking about his recent trip to Vanuatu

Sentence: It is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Corinthians 4:6

Collect: Gracious God, your Son made your love visible in human form and placed wholeness and healing above the law: grant us grace to show compassion to those in need, to bear the criticism for your sake, and to act wisely in your name. Hear this prayer for your love's sake. AMEN.

Readings: Deuteronomy 5: 12-15; Psalm 81: 1-10;
2 Corinthians 4: 5-12; Mark 2: 23 - 3: 6

Calling all knitters

Anglican Family Care have a family of four girls aged 1,2,3 and 8yrs in desperate need of knitted cardigans, hats, gloves and socks. Please 'age' label any items and take to Community Networks labelled c/o Vicki McDermott AFC. Thank you!

Welcome to St Columba's. We are glad you are here. We hope you enjoy worshipping with us this morning.

The majesty of mountains,
the sovereignty of skies,
the regal rocks that arch above
where veils of vapour rise,
are gifts of God, the Lord of love,
the worshipful, the wise.

The running of the water,
the surging of the sea,
the grass that grows high on the hill,
the flower and fruiting tree, our Saviour sends us, by whose will all creatures came to be.

The Glory of the Godhead,
the Spirit and the Son,
the Father, faithful down the days:
to them, the Three-in-One,
while life shall last, be perfect praise
and highest honour done.

Michael Perry / Arr. Christopher Norton

Today is the Feast of the Holy Trinity, a day that many understand as being devoted to and focused on a doctrine. While there is some truth in that understanding; it is, I believe, only a very small piece of what today is about. The greater truth is that we live Trinitarian lives. We live, move, and have our being in the Blessed Trinity.
