Community House Update

After years of discussion and planning, work on the Community House building looks likely to begin in August or early spring. A grant of $500,000 was recently approved by the Lotteries Commission; this is in addition to grants from Central Lakes Trust, Otago Community Trust, Sargood Trust, Alexander McMillan Trust, as well as other donations and fundraising initiatives. The Trust is in discussions with a contractor and a date at the end of July has been penciled in for the blessing of the land; further information to come.

Our Local Committee has appointed a sub-committee (Brian Collins, Helen Davis, Peter Hook, Rev. Damon Plimmer, and George Ritchie) to liaise with contractors and trustees during the build process.

After the service please join us for light refreshments.

Activities for small children are available at the rear of the church.

When I needed a neighbour, were you there, were you there?

When I needed a neighbour, were you there?

*And the creed and the colour and the name won't matter,
were you there?*

I was hungry and thirsty, were you there, were you there?

I was hungry and thirsty, were you there?

I was cold, I was naked, were you there, were you there?

I was cold, I was naked, were you there?

When I needed a shelter, were you there, were you there?

When I needed a shelter, were you there?

When I needed a healer, were you there, were you there?

When I needed a healer, were you there?

Wherever you travel, I'll be there, I'll be there,

Wherever you travel, I'll be there,

Sydney Carter

Please pray for...

- The family of Jules Scaife;
- Community Board members and local Councillors;
- Refugees and internally displaced people;
- The good stewardship of our planet.

Many thanks to everyone who came along to the debate last Sunday afternoon. It was a lot of fun, the young people were exceptional, and the feedback from all has been positive. The opportunity has certainly caused me to think more about the End of Life Choice Bill. Michael Laws, the organizer of the interschool debating competition in Central Otago and the chair for this debate, is keen for us to do it again!

Thank you also for your prayers, thoughts and gifts of food (My Food Bag move over!!), following the death of Raewyn's mother. The funeral on Thursday was a sad but joyous occasion.

Damon.

A prayer for those who have died

Father of all, we pray to you for those we love but see no longer. We thank for the peace and light you bestow upon them; in your loving wisdom and almighty power continue to work in them the good purpose of your perfect will, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
