Sunday September 23rd

Ordinary Sunday 25

Celebrant and Preacher - Rev. Damon Plimmer

Sentence: Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all. Mark 9: 35

Collect: Holy God, in your economy the last will be first and the first will be last; help us to step aside, grant us such humility that we may recognise and welcome all your children with open hands, warm hearts and generous minds, with the hospitality of the Father, the grace of the Son and the warmth of the Holy Spirit.
AMEN.

Readings: Jeremiah 11: 19-20; Psalm 54;
James 3: 13 - 4: 3, 7-8a; Mark 9: 30 - 37

Liturgy: 456

Kia ora! Nau mai, haere mai ki tēnei whare karakia Greetings! Welcome, welcome to this house of prayer

Next Sunday's Propers

Sunday September 30th

Ordinary Sunday 26/Daylight Saving begins Celebrant and Preacher – Rev. Barry Entwisle

Sentence: Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can it be seasoned? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with one another. Mark 9: 50

Collect: Creator God, you love all you created despite human frailty, protect us in our ignorance, give us wisdom to know what it is that you require of us, that we may come into the fullness of your kingdom, embraced by our Creator, in communion with the Son, and in the companionship of the Holy Spirit. AMEN.

Readings: Numbers 11: 4-6, 10-16; Psalm 19: 7-14;
James 5: 13-20; Mark 9: 38-50

Liturgy: 476

Thank you to Annette Reinheimer and to her team for organizing the Community (Quiet) Day held yesterday at the home of Peter Chamberlayne, and to Rev. Yvonne Smith from Christchurch for leading the sessions.

A quote from the day:

“It has taken years to continue to live into the truth that if I believe we are from God and for God, then we are from Goodness and for Goodness. To greet sorrow today does not mean that sorrow will be there tomorrow. Happiness comes too, and grief, and tiredness, disappointment, surprise and energy. Chaos and fulfilment will be named as well as delight and despair. This is the truth of being here, wherever here is today. It may not be permanent but it is here. I will probably leave here, and I will probably return. To deny here is to harrow the heart. Hello to here.”

— Pádraig Ó Tuama, In the Shelter: Finding a Home in the World

Winter Study, Thursdays 3.30 – 4.30pm

Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love, show us how to serve the neighbours we have from you.

Kneels at the feet of his friends,
silently washes their feet,
master who acts as a slave to them.

Neighbours are rich and poor,
varied in colour and race,
neighbours are near and far away.

These are the ones we should serve,
these are the ones we should love;
all these are neighbours to us and you.

Loving puts us on our knees,
serving as though we are slaves;
this is the way we should live with you.

Kneel at the feet of our friends,
silently washing their feet;
this is the way we should live with you.
