Sunday October 21st

Ordinary Sunday 29

Celebrant - Rev. Ken Light; Preacher - Fred McElrea

Sentence: The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Mark 10:45

Collect: God of power, in Christ you came to us as a servant; the greatest became the least. In a world which values privilege and power, may we find the humble way, putting others before ourselves, sharing our resources and witnessing to the life of the one who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God and forever. AMEN.

Readings: Isaiah 53: 4-12; Psalm 91: 9-16;
Hebrews 5: 1-10; Mark 10: 35-45

Liturgy: 476

Kia ora! Nau mai, haere mai ki tēnei whare karakia
Greetings! Welcome, welcome to this house of prayer

Ordinary Sunday 30

Celebrant and Preacher – Rev. Ken Light

Sentence: The redeemed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with singing; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads. Isaiah 51:11

Collect: Listening God, you show us mercy and ask us what we need; may we seek only those things which increase our faith and further your kingdom, that we may follow you more closely. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer. AMEN.

Readings: Jeremiah 31: 7-9; Psalm 126;
Hebrews 7: 23-28; Mark 10: 46-52

Liturgy: 404

Sabbatical Leave, October – November

Our Vicar, Rev. Damon Plimmer, is on leave from the Parish through to the middle of November. Having set out on foot from Cape Reinga on the 11th of October, he and his travelling companion, Leith Brew, should now be in the Bay of Islands, the birth place of our nation, as they continue on the first part of the Te Araroa trail, a 3,000 km trail stretching the length of the country. Their plan is to arrive in Auckland by the 8th of November. Please keep them both in your prayers over the coming weeks.

“Ko oku kainga waewae – the places my feet have walked”

Rev. Ken Light is providing cover for Damon while he is away.

Study, Jesus and the Kingdom of God

Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey,
and companions on the road;
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh I'll laugh with you;
I will share your joy and sorrow
till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven
we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together
of Christ's love and agony.

Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

Tarore of Waharoa, 1836

Tarore, the daughter of Ngakuku, the Ngati Haua chief, attended the mission station at Matamata and learned to read. Tragically, on 19 October 1836, at the age of twelve, she was killed during a raid. Her father preached forgiveness at her tangi. The Gospel of Luke she used as a pillow on the night she died was taken by one of the raiding party, who was subsequently converted and made peace with Ngakuku. Later it was taken to Otaki, where its message led to the conversion of Tamihana Te Rauparaha, who became a missionary to the South Island.

Tikanga Youth Sunday is on the Sunday closest to the 19th of October.
