Sunday August 25th

Ordinary Sunday 21 / Anglican Communion Sunday

Celebrant and Preacher – Rev. Damon Plimmer

Sentence: You, O Lord are my hope, my trust from my youth.
Upon you have I leaned since my birth.

Psalm 71:5-6

Collect: Redeeming God, you draw us all to you through love rather than law; set us free from any bondage, so we and all your children stand upright in the dignity you give us, praising you and proclaiming your wonders; through Jesus Christ our Mediator. AMEN.

Readings: Isaiah 58: 9b-14; Psalm 103: 1-8;
Hebrews 12: 18-29; Luke 13: 10-17

Nothing is lost on the breath of God,
nothing is lost for ever;
God's breath is love, and that love will remain,
holding the world for ever.
No feather too light, no hair too fine,
no flower too brief in its glory;
no drop in the ocean, no dust in the air,
but is counted and told in God's story.

Nothing is lost to the eyes of God,
nothing is lost for ever;
God sees with love and that love will remain,
holding the world for ever.
No journey too far, no distance too great,
no valley of darkness too blinding;
no creature too humble, no child too small for God to be seeking, and finding.

Nothing is lost to the heart of God,
nothing is lost for ever;
God's heart is love, and that love will remain,
holding the world for ever.
No impulse of love, no office of care,
no moment of life in its fulness;
no beginning too late, no ending too soon,
but is gathered and known in God's goodness

Community House / Hub

Fundraising is ongoing. For every $10 donated by parishioners up until the end of August, another parishioner has offered to contribute a further $1.
Please contact the Parish Office to find out more.

The building will be officially opened on Saturday 2 November.

Please pray for...

- An ability to put ourselves in the shoes of others;
- Rural communities, farmers and those who support them;
- The churches of the Anglican Communion;
- The care and protection of the planet.

*After the service please join us for light refreshments.
Activities for small children are available at the rear of the church.*
