The Epiphany of our Lord Jesus Christ, 6 January

Epiphany commemorates the revelation of Christ to the Gentiles, particularly in the persons of the wise men from the east. The story reflects the church's major mission to the Gentiles. Like Balaam of old, these astrologers had seen the rising messianic star; the Jewish Scriptures (through Herod) led them to the place of the Jewish king's birth at Bethlehem. These Scriptures are fulfilled further in their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. They have also suggested that they were three kings who came first to worship our king.

From For All the Saints

I didn't hear the angels sing across the starry sky,
and yet I know that Christ was born,
to fill our hearts with joy.

I didn't see the shepherds come and kneel before his stall,
and yet I know that Christ was born,
the shepherd of us all.

I wasn't there to see the gifts the wise men brought to him,
but still I know that Christ was born,
the gift of God to all.
